ART EXHIBITION

An exhibition featuring the artwork of Linda Lighty will open on Friday, August 9th with a reception from 6:00-8:00 pm.

Linda Lighty, a local artist, with her Starry Night Studio in Airville, Pennsylvania, is best known for her distinctive paintings of flowers. A student of Roz Stallcup and Iva Moore, she has also been influenced by various classes in decorative paint techniques including those at the York Art Association.

Her work is displayed in offices and local shops and has been expanded to murals in private residences. Linda has created an annual "Santa Card" for the past 13 years that is eagerly anticipated by recipients and collectors. Six of these framed 22 x 26 originals will be part of this exhibit and sale.

This solo exhibition will be in place in the Library's Quiet Reading Room through August 30, 2013
