ART EXHIBITION

An exhibition featuring the artwork of Barbara Bishop and Lynn Lamphier will open on Friday April 5 with a reception from 6-8pm.

Barbara Bishop enjoys painting landscapes, wildlife and still-life subjects and most recently working in oils and acrylics on board. She has taken instruction from Nancy Wiseman, a well-known artist trained in the Dutch Master methods. Barbara has enjoyed creative activity all her life and previously worked in other medias such as pastels, watercolors and woodcarving. She intends to continue to expand her painting techniques during her travels and hopes to add portraits to her future studies.

Lynn Lamphier is a local artist studying under Nancy Wiseman. She focuses on still life paintings, often experimenting with the use of bold colors and the occasional Mouse! Lynn enjoys the entire process of painting-the aromas of paint, extenders and solvents, the mixing and overlaying of colors, the thought process involved before each stroke of the brush, and the magic of turning a two-dimensional board into a vision of three dimensions. Lynn plans to continue her studies with Nancy to expand her understanding of color, texture and technique.

This two-artist exhibition will be in place in the Library's Quiet Reading Room through April 26th.
