PODCAST

We have recorded several different podcasts on a variety of subjects. To hear any of the podcasts recorded at the library log-on at <http://southernYorkpodcast.podbean.com>

BOOK DISCUSSION

Join us at the fireplace for a lively discussion of this year's One Book, One Community selection People of the Book by Geraldine Brooks. This will be held Thursday, October 1st at 7:00 pm.

ART EXHIBITION

An exhibition featuring the work of Maria Knott will open on Friday, October 2, 2009 with a reception from 6-8 pm. Maria Knott from Pylesville, Maryland best describes her art work as traditional fine art portraiture wherein she utilizes the techniques and materials perfected by the old masters. Her award-winning portraits have been shown at various exhibitions in Maryland and Pennsylvania. Maria accepts commissions for portraits of adults, children and pets and her work may be viewed on her website at www.MariaKnott.com. She is one of our returning featured artists having successfully exhibited at the Library in May 2007. She is affiliated with the York Art Association and Maryland Art League. This solo exhibition will be in place in the Library's Quiet Reading Room through October 23rd.

BOOK SALE

The Friends of the Mason-Dixon Public Library will hold an in-house book sale on Friday, October 2nd and Saturday, October 3rd during regular hours. Come to the Library for lots of bargains on books, videos and more.

October 26st: Carol Stampler will present And Then Comes Halloween. Join us as we get ready for Halloween with stories and fun.

SCRAPBOOKING

Are your pictures waiting for scrapbook pages?

A new six month session of the scrapbooking club will be starting. The club meets the third Monday of each month from 6-8 pm in the Library's Community Room. Scrap club participants will make six preplanned 12"X12" pages each month. The club is open to both new and experienced scrapbookers. The teacher, Becky Jensen will preplan and precut materials needed for scrapbook pages. There is a cost of $15.00 per month. One can register at the Library.
