There are no scheduled holiday closings for the library this month.

Poetry Workshop

In honor of National Poetry Month, Dory Maguire, a multimedia poet, will be hosting a poetry workshop that will take you from inspiration to publication, Tuesday, April 4th at 6:30 pm. Beginners welcome. Enter the no-pressure zone and enjoy the flow of writing poetry. This program is free and open to the public, ages 16 and up. There will be door prizes for participants. Pre-registration is not required. Ms. Maguire's poetry books and photography will also be on display.

Adult Programs in April

Other great programs coming up this month for Adults: crafting with cord and beads, spring cleaning with essential oils, and the how-to's of growing beautiful orchids. See reverse for more detail.

Spring Used Book Sale

This year's Spring Used Book Sale will begin on Saturday, May 6th at 9 am and will run through the following week (May 8-13) during our regular hours. Items will be priced as follows:

Adult books: $1.50 each or 4 for $5

Children's/teen books: $0.50 each or 3 for $1

We are accepting donations for the sale through May 3rd. Items need to be in good condition. We will take books, DVD's, and CD audiobooks. Please, no VHS or cassette tapes, text books, or magazines.

Story Time and Toddler Time Season Finales

The last Pre-school Story Time and the last Toddler Time for the 2016-17 school year will occur in the first week of May.

They will resume in the fall. LEGO® Club and Block Party continue on their usual nights, and there will be lots of Summer Reading Club events to look forward to beginning in June!

Pasta Dinner Fundraiser

Thanks to the K-Kids and everyone who assisted with the Pasta fundraiser! What a delicious way to support the Library.

Artist Gallery

The featured artist for April and May is Dory Maguire, who specializes in Farm Photography focused on horse portraits, rural lifestyle and visual poetry. View some of her art in the back of our main room.
