Art Exhibition

An exhibition featuring the paintings of Donna Price will open on Friday, March 5th with a reception from 6-8 pm. Donna is a Glen Rock artist who works primarily in oils and pastels. A graduate of Gettysburg College, she studied painting at the Lyme Academy College of Fine Arts.

She has continued her exploration of various painting techniques and has been studying for the past several years with York artist, Marion Stephenson. Donna is a member of the York Art Association.

An enthusiastic gardener and birder as well as an experienced traveler, she particularly enjoys spending time painting in the scenic coastal areas of New England and the quiet sandy beaches of North Carolina. In addition to painting landscapes, seascapes, lighthouses and water fowl, Donna is inspired by the Glen Rock countryside and the song birds that visit the backyard habitat she has created outside of her studio windows. This solo exhibition will be in place in the Quiet Reading Room March 5-26.
