Our weekly Baby and Toddler Story Times resume Wednesday, Jan 10th and Thursday, Jan 11th at 10:30am. This story time is for ages 0-3, and includes a story and play time. No registration required.

Holiday Tech Help

Got some new tech toys for Christmas and don't know quite how to use them? Stop by the library and get some help from Oliver learning the quirks of your new tablet, phone, laptop, or similar device. Thursday, Jan 4th from 4-8pm and Monday, Jan 8th from noon-4pm.

Coming this month.....A Community Aid Donation Box will be set up outside the Library, making it all the more convenient for you to thin out your clothes closets and contribute to a great area resource.

World War II in York County

Monday, Jan 15th at 6:30pm, editor of the York Daily Record and avid historian Jim McClure will discuss the impact of World War II in York County. He has written several books chronicling the history of the county, from its early roots to more recent events, and maintains a blog about York at: <https://www.ydr.com/blog/yorktownsquare/>

Year in Review

Thanks to all our patrons, volunteers, staff, and board members for a great 2017. Overall, we saw a 15% increase in circulation of materials and a 27.5% increase in computer use. You kept us busy! We're looking forward to a great 2018 as well.

Annual Appeal

Look for our Annual Appeal in your mailbox. If you didn't receive one and want to donate, a form can be picked up at the library.

A Successful Mitten Tree Project

Thanks to everyone who contributed to our Mitten Tree this past holiday season. We received many dozens of items to give to New Hope Ministries and our community members.

Artist Gallery

January and February, we are featuring the artwork of Joseph D'Alessio. Mr. D'Alessio paints in acrylics and has won local and state level awards for his work in New Jersey.
