Book Discussions—OBOC Selection Poison Study

Join us at your choice of time Thursday, Feb 15th, to discuss this year's One Book, One Community selection, Poison Study by Maria V Snyder. In this story, Yelena is compelled to become a food taster for her country's commander and struggles with her captivity even as forces in and outside of the castle threaten her life.

Snyder is a local author based out of Elizabethtown. Libraries around Central PA are hosting events to discuss the book and meet with the author. Our book discussions will be Thursday, Feb 15th at 1pm and 6:30pm.

A Community Aid Donation Box has been set up outside the Library, making it all the more convenient for you to thin out your clothes closets and contribute to a great area resource. Clothing only, please.

The Kids Origami program will resume in March on the 14th from 5:30-7:30pm. This monthly program will take place on the second Wednesday of each month. Registration is required. Stop by the Front Desk or call 717-432-5613.

Credit Card Payment Policy

York County Libraries has updated our credit card payment policy because of increasing transaction fees. We can no longer run credit/debit cards for payments under $2.00. If you know you are only going to be printing or copying a small number of pages, please remember to bring cash. Fines of under $2.00 can stay on your account until you remember to bring cash in. Thanks for your understanding.

Artist Gallery

February and March, we are featuring the artwork of Joseph D'Alessio. Mr. D'Alessio paints in acrylics and watercolor, and has won local and state level awards in New Jersey for his work.
