Daylight Saving Time begins Sunday, March 10th.

2018 Tax Form Availability

This year federal tax forms are available as a bundle, which includes a 1040 and several schedules. Pennsylvania is no longer printing copies of the state tax forms. If you require paper tax forms, we can print them from the internet for $0.20 per side.

Farmers Market Programs at the Library

Monday March 25th at 6:30 pm, Kayla from Center Cut Co will discuss topics related to raising chickens and livestock in your backyard. No registration required to attend. This program is co-sponsored by the Dillsburg Farmers Market. Bring your questions (but maybe leave your chickens at home).

Sensory Story Times

Monday, March 18th Miss Sue begins a weekly sensory story time for children with developmental disabilities. These specially-structured story times take place Mondays at 10:30 am from March 18-April 22 and offer an opportunity for a different kind of interaction with books and stories. Group size is limited to 10, so registration is required at 717-432-5613.

Used Book Sale

This spring our Used Book Sale will take place April 6-13th. We are currently accepting books, DVD's, puzzles, and audiobooks for the sale. Items must be in good condition. No VHS or cassette tapes, please.

Scan Your Old Documents and Photos

This April we will once again set up a scanning station that accommodates making digital files of photographs, documents, video tapes, slides, and negatives. You will need to sign up for a two hour time slot in order to use the equipment. Please call the library at 717-432-5613 or stop by the front desk to reserve a time. Only basic technical assistance will be available from library staff.

K-Kids Lauren Simmons Memorial Pasta Dinner

Fri, March 22nd Kiwanis Kids host their annual pasta dinner fundraiser to benefit the library. Pasta, salad, bread, drinks and dessert will be served from 5-7pm at the Dillsburg Elementary School. We will also have a selection of used kids books available for purchase. Show your support for the library by eating food you didn't have to cook or clean up after. Walk-ins are welcome, but pre-orders preferred. Order forms can be picked up at the library.

Artist Gallery

Our featured artist for this month is Lori Snyder of Red Camera Studio. She uses photography as a means of sharing moments, often with a dreamlike quality. Her work has been included in a variety of art shows around the area. Stop by to view her photographs in our gallery!
