Give Local York: Food Truck Food Court

Friday, May 3 from 11 am–1 pm, join your library and other area non-profits outside the Dillsburg Senior Center (1 N 2nd St) to celebrate the county's largest fundraising endeavor. Purchase lunch from a food truck and learn more about the services provided by various organizations. Make a pledge and join in a day of giving. Vendors currently include: The Sweet Patch, Grappling Crab Shack, Mad Dash Artisan Grilled Cheese Sandwiches, and Sunshine Bakery.

May is Food for Fines Month

Food for Fines is a program that allows you to erase $1 of fines for every non-perishable food item you donate. Donations will go to New Hope to help the hungry in our area (expired goods are not accepted).

History of the Joller Mine and Company Village

This program tells the story of presenter Steve Runkle's Miller Family. The Millers developed, owned, and operated the company coal mine and village of Joller, in the East Broad Top coal fields of Huntingdon County. Here Mr. Runkle outlines the family's early lumber business, the discovery of coal on the Joller tract, and the development of slope mines in three separate coal veins. Join us Wednesday, May 15th at 7 pm for a fascinating look at 35 years of deep mining at Joller and life in the company village.

Origami and Coding Club Switcheroo

Starting in May, kid's Origami and Coding Club are switching nights. Origami will take place on the 3rd Thursday of the month (at 5:30) and Coding Club will take place on the 2nd Wednesday of the month (at 6).

Weekly Story Times End

The last Pre-school and Baby/Toddler story times for the current school year will take place May 7-9. Stayed tuned for a variety of story times happening throughout the summer months.

Thanks to your contributions and purchases, our used book sale made over $1400 for library programs!

Summer Quest Online Registration Opens May 19th!
