TITLE	AUTHOR	RECOMMENDED?
The Boy From the Woods*	Coban, Harlan	"Yes"
House on Fire*	Finder, Joseph	"Excellent read"
A Death in Live Oak*	Grippando	"Yes, A Wonderful Read"
Lying With Strangers*	Grippando	"Yes! Loved it."
Human.4*	Lancaster, Mike	"Yes I would recommend this book. It is a quick read that will keep you guessing until the end. There is a sequel to this book that I haven't read yet."
Dark Matter*	Crouch, Blake	" Yes I would recommend this book if you like Science Fiction, Mystery, Thriller. It will keep you thinking."
Renegades*	Meyer, Marissa	"Yes. It is an exciting book. the first in a series. It is a roller coaster ride and kicks off a good series if you are into superheroes. I thought it was fun to read. It built a world that you can imagine."
Takedown Twenty*	Evanovich, Janet	"No. These are all the same."
Everybody Always	Goff, Bob	"Yes, Bob's stories, life, choices and perspective are inspiring."
Smoke Screen*	Blackstock, Terri	"Yes"
The Devil's Code*	Sandford, John	"Recommendation: Yes--haven't read any Sandford books I did not like...Kidd and Luellen are great characters!"
The Beach Street Knitting Society and Yarn Club*	McNeil, Gil	"Yes: an uplifting tale of starting over."
A Lady's Life in the Rocky Mountains*	Bird, Isabella	"Yes, if you like historical documents and letters. It was an interesting look into Life in the Rockies during pioneering days of the 1800s through a remarkable woman's eyes."

TITLE	AUTHOR	RECOMMENDED?
Sylvester and the Magic Pebble *	Steig, William	"Yes. I chose this book for the children's book selection on the bingo card. This is a favorite of mine about family, love, and being content with what you have. It is also a Caldecott book!"
Murder on Monday *	Purser, Ann	"Good book. Would Recommend."
The Confession Club *	Berg, Elizabeth	"A good read."
The Silent Patient *	Michaelides, Alex	"Yes. Excellent first novel."
The Vanishing *	Krentz, Jayne Ann	"No. I don't enjoy paranormal stories."
Already Gone	Ham, Ken & Beemer, Britt	"Yes, but it's a sad commentary about why young adults are leaving the church, but also what we can do about it."
The Blue Orchard *	Taylor, Jackson	"Highly recommended! I couldn't put the book down. The story takes place in Harrisburg and the surrounding area."
An Everyday Hero *	Trentham, Laura	"Yes. A good light read."
A Good Neighborhood *	Fowler, Therse Ann	"Yes."
By the Book *	Someborn, Julia	"No. I had a rough time getting into the story line."
The Last letter from Juliet *	Hudson, Melanie	"Yes. Loved the story line about a woman pilot during WWII mixed in with times now."
I Am Not Sick: I Don't Need Help! *	Amador, Xavier	"Slow read but if you have a loved one with mental illness, well worth the time."
Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets *	Rowling, J.K.	"Great book. #2 in the Harry Potter series. Great plot, great characters! I am Really enjoying the series and I normally am not a fan of fantasy genre books."
Otherful: How to Change the World (and Your School) Through Other People	Kleba, Mike & O'Hara, Ryan	"Great book for school administrators (principals, superintendents, etc.) especially if they are just starting their careers in school leadership or want a "jump" to energize their careers."
