

ADULT SUMMER READERS RECOMMEND 6/29-7/3/2020 (* denotes title is available in York County Libraries)

Title	Author	Recommendation
The Other Girl *	Spindler, Erica	"Good read"
The Other Mrs. *	Kubica, Mary	"Decent read"
Justice for Sara *	Spindler, Erica	"Good read"
Bookish Boyfriends-Talk Nerdy to Me *	Schmidt, Tiffany	"Yes, love this series."
Twisted *	Deaver, Jefferey	"A collection of his short stories...all have a twist. Can you figure it out? Great bedside read—one a night!"
The Hanged Man's Song *	Sandford, John	"A Kidd Novel—loved it."
The Tattooist of Aushwitz *	Morris, Heather	"Yes! Couldn't put it down."
Gone Girl *	Flynn, Gillian	"Good book!! Some weird twists and turns!!"
Flip Your Classroom (Reach Every Student in Every Class Every Day)	Bermann, Johnathan & Sams, Aaron	"A lot of my summer reading is devoted to summer professional development...I want to try to prepare for the upcoming school year (and all of its challenges). I really like the idea of the flipped classroom and I am going to try it this school year. I think it will create a lot more time for me to hands-on activities and labs with my students. And mostly I think it answers the question: "What is best for kids?"
Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban *	Rowling, J.K.	"Definitely love these characters!! Great story!!"
The Eyes of Darkness *	Koontz, Dean	"Good book! I had wanted to read this book since March because it mentions the "Wuhan-400" virus. It really doesn't deal much with bioterrorism until the last 15 pages. Good thriller!"
Sea Glass Castle	Lowe, T.I.	"Yes! But it's the third in the series – best to read in order!"
The Whistler *	Grisham, John	"Great, fast read!"

Supernova*	Meyer, Marissa	“The third book of the Renegades series is a page turner and I couldn’t put it down. So much excitement and twists in the each page until the end. So open in the end, you can get a spin off in the near future. I love this book & highly recommend it.”
A Tree Grows in Brooklyn*	Smith, Betty	“Yes”
Postscript*	Ahern, Cecelia	“Yes”
The Day the World Came to Town:* 911 in Gander, Newfoundland	Defede, Jim	“Yes”
The Little Mexican Donkey Boy	Brandeis, Madeline	“No. This 1931 children's book about children and life in Mexico Wouldn't be politically correct nowadays, but this series of books about life in other countries was popular back then. I found this among my mother's favorite books when I was cleaning out her house. “
A Walk in the Woods*	Bryson, Bill	“I would recommend it. He has a funny way of writing. Thanks!”
I'm Still Here*	Brown, Channing	“Maybe...I’m glad to add more voices to my understanding of my understanding of the world around me, but I think there are helpful voices to listen to in her same space.”
