

DILLSBURG PUBLIC LIBRARY ADULT SUMMER READERS RECOMMEND (*denotes title is available in York County Libraries)

Week of 7/6/20-7/11/20

TITLE	AUTHOR	RECOMMENDATION
One Good Deed*	Balducci, David	"Balducci is always a good read, and this was no exception."
Dewey - There's a Cat in the Library!*	Myron, Vicki & Witter, Brett	"Yes"
The Wizard of Oz*	Baum, L. Frank	"Yes, if you are curious about the book compared to the movie. This is one that I think I like the movie better."
Small Fry and the Winged Horse	Campbell, Ruth	"Yes. A 1927 children's book about Pegasus telling a boy lots of stories he experienced, including those of Joan of Arc, Rome and Julius Caesar, and the gods of Mount Olympus. Much more interesting than most children's books of today!"
A Time For War*	Savage, Michael	"A good read"
Red Alert	Flynn/Mills	"Fast moving and exciting!"
The Book Woman of Troublesome Creek*	Richardson, Kim Michelle	"Loved it--learned a lot and the message of segregation/discrimination resounds today even though this book is set in the 1930s. Could not put it down." "Yes"
The larger queen of Minnesota*	Stradal, J. Ryan	"Yes"
28 Summers*	Hilderbrand, Elin	"Yes – a great summer light read"
Friends and Strangers*	Sullivan, J. Courtney	"Yes – a great book about friendships and a light summer read"
Agent 355 (audio book)	Benedict, Marie	"Yes- a great story about a British spy of the revolution"

Afraid of the Light	Ruchti, Cynthia	“This is a highly emotional book about hoarding and addictions, and their impact on relationships. It is excellent, but certainly not light reading!”
Worth Dying For*	Child, Lee	“Not his best, but I always enjoy a Jack Reacher story.”
The Summer Before the War*	Simonson, Helen	“Yes, takes you on a ride and you fall in love with the characters.”
Set the Stars Alight*	Dykes, Amanda	“Yes!”
Start with Me	Isaac, Kara	“Yes!”
State of the Onion*	Hyzy, Julie	“First in a series of White House Chef mysteries. Not your typical cozy mystery but still very enjoyable.”
Origin*	Khoury, Jessica	“Young adult book – good read! Biomedical thriller (with some romance). The story is about creating the PERFECT human!” Looks at how far science will go to achieve its goals!
