As we approach Valentine's Day, let us take a moment to reflect how much we ♥ our library. We ♥ reading. We ♥ all the patrons and volunteers that make the library a success.

Covid news. Following current CDC guidelines, the library is strongly recommending and asking that that all individuals over the age of 2, regardless of vaccination status, wear a mask or face covering when inside the building. We also ask that if you are ill that you postpone your trip to the library until you are better. Thank you for helping us keep each other safe!

Online Book Discussion – Feb 24, 6:30 PM – 7:30 PM. The 2022 One Book One Community winning title is The Life We Bury by Allen Askens. It tells the story of Joe Talbert who has avoided doing his college English class assignment until its almost too late. Interviewing an old person about his life doesn't sound all that interesting. Who cares? He has enough trouble dealing with his own life and his dysfunctional family. But when Joe decides to interview a Vietnam vet convicted of a murder 30 years ago who lives in a nearby nursing home, he thinks maybe it won't be so boring after all. Copies of the book are available at all York County Library locations. Reserve your copy today and join us on 2/24/22 via ZOOM. A ZOOM link will be sent via email before the scheduled date. Registration required using the RSVP function at the YCL events calendar.

Mitten Tree Project. The Mitten Tree Project was a great success! We collected 271 items in December. Our deepest thanks to all !

Artist Spotlight. Our next featured artist is Valerie Sebestyen. Valerie is a local resident who dabbles in many crafts, and has recently taken to experimenting in watercolor, collage, and quilling. She has published numerous maps in both fiction and non-fiction books, tracked lions in Kenya, and recently collaborated on a children's book called Girls Can, which celebrates a variety of interests and activities girls can enjoy. Her work will be displayed through the end of February.

Snow Closures. If the Library is closed due to inclement weather, it will be posted on our website and on our Facebook page. It will also be posted on WHTM, WGAL, and WHP television.
