Back to school time! For many of us Fall is the best time of year: football, autumn leaves, harvest time, and a crispness in the air. The library will be closed Labor Day, September 5. There is a book sale at month's end.

COVID. Masks and face coverings are optional when coming to the Dillsburg Area Public Library. If you are ill or are experiencing any COVID-19 symptoms, please postpone your trip to the Library. Thank you for helping us keep our staff and volunteers safe! NOTE: All events follow the prevailing COVID guidelines that are in place at the date of the event.

End of Summer Hours. September 3 is the last day of summer Saturday hours. Starting September 10 we will be closing at 5:00 PM on Saturdays.

Summer Concert – Saturday, Sep 10 at 6:00pm. See page 2 for the details.

SummerQuest. The SummerQuest reading program was a huge success. The library offers a big “thank you” to all those who participated and helped. There is an enormous workload to make SummerQuest happen, and youth services coordinator Sue Rizzo is especially deserving of our appreciation for all of the work she has done. Well done!

Book Donations. We are collecting items for our Fall Book Sale. Remember, there are some items we cannot use: encyclopedias, textbooks, magazines, VHS tapes, and damaged items of any kind. Other than that, we are grateful for books of all genres, puzzles, CDs, and DVDs. Collection continues through September 19 for a sale that starts September 24.

Fall Book Sale. It starts September 24 at 9:00am, one hour earlier than our usual opening time. The sale continues through the week during regular library hours. October 1 is the last day and also bargain day.

Artist Spotlight. Cynthia Enanoria is a retired visual art teacher and visual artist. Graduating from Kutztown State College (now Kutztown University) and Shippensburg University she taught grades k-7 for 39 years. She enjoyed helping her students make connections between history, culture and visual art. Her earliest paintings explored techniques in watercolor, later expanding into oils and acrylic. Mixed media work is one of her favorite areas to explore. This exhibit continues September through October with sale proceeds being donated to World Central Kitchen to benefit Ukraine relief.
