Happy Halloween! Try not to eat too much candy.

October 1 is the final day of the Fall book sale; story times once again fill the weekly schedule; there are two programs for adults this month. On October 31, will your librarians be costumed? Stop in to find out!

COVID. Masks and face coverings are optional when coming to the Dillsburg Area Public Library. If you are ill or are experiencing any COVID-19 symptoms, please postpone your trip to the Library. Thank you for helping us keep our staff and volunteers safe! NOTE: All events follow the prevailing COVID guidelines that are in place at the date of the event.

Fall Book Sale. October 1 is the final day — and it is bargain day. Five dollars for a bag! We provide the bag.

Friends! Join the Friends of the Library and help with the book sales. The next meeting is October 25 at 6:30 PM here at the library. This is a great way to meet people and give back to the community.

Farmer's Fair. The Fair runs from October 10 through October 15. The library will have a display, so stop by and check it out. Working with the library this year is Kennedy's Kitchen. Owned and operated by Jared and Amy Kennedy, the Kennedy's Kitchen food truck is donating a portion of Farmer's Fair sales to the library.

Digital Books. Starting February 1 of 2023, YCL is changing the digital book platform. The new service is called Libby and it replaces Axis 360. Future editions of Happenings will have more information. Keep an eye on our social media as well.

Artist Spotlight. Cynthia Enanoria is a retired visual arts teacher and visual artist. Graduating from Kutztown State College (now Kutztown University) and Shippensburg University she taught grades k-7 for 39 years. She enjoyed helping her students make connections between history, culture and visual art. Her earliest paintings explored techniques in watercolor, later expanding into oils and acrylic. Mixed media work is one of her favorite areas to explore. This exhibit continues through October with sale proceeds being donated to World Central Kitchen to benefit Ukraine relief.

Polar Express. Save the date! The Polar Express will be pulling into Dillsburg Library on December 7. Watch this space and Facebook for further details as we near the time.
