Happy New Year! The library welcomes 2023. We close early on December 31: 3:00 PM. We are closed Monday, January 2. Normal hours resume on January 3. With the closing of the Holiday period, regularly scheduled programs also resume.

COVID. Masks and face coverings are optional when coming to the Dillsburg Area Public Library. If you are ill or are experiencing any COVID-19 symptoms, please postpone your trip to the Library. Thank you for helping us keep our staff and volunteers safe! NOTE: All events follow the prevailing COVID guidelines that are in place at the date of the event.

MLK Day. January 16 is Martin Luther King Jr. Day. The library will be open.

Meet Libby: In February, Libby by Overdrive will become our primary eBook and eAudiobook app, replacing Axis 360. More details to come in future newsletters and social media.

Giant Gift Cards. Whatever the occasion, Giant Gift cards are available at the library. Giant Gift Cards are a way to help the library while you accomplish your everyday shopping. Several denominations are in stock.

Artist Spotlight. The current exhibit features altered journals by artist Shelby Pizarro. Shelby curates the Artist's Corner and we are lucky to have her work on display. The covers of these journals utilize a variety of collage and mixed media techniques. The 124 pages are blank and ready to capture your personal thoughts, images and dreams. Journaling is a powerful practice enabling you to nurture your creativity, renew your mental and physical health and expand your mindfulness. Journaling inspires you to follow your creative inspiration in a way that is authentically yours.
