THE BOOKWORM

As we turn the page to 2019 at Red Land Community Library, we look forward to sharing some new initiatives with you; continuing our story times and programs for children, teens, and adults; and serving as your local community gathering space.

Karen, Nancy, Rosie, and Kari

with our wonderful Friends and volunteers

Are You Reading? Join the 2019 One Book, One Community campaign by reading Killers of the Flower Moon by David Grann

David Grann thoroughly explores a tragic, little known and shameful piece of modern United States history.

1920-1924 - Murders in the Osage Tribal Lands and Edgar Hoover's young FBI is charged with solving the case.

Read the book. Discuss the issues. Attend a related program.

Book Discussion Tuesday, February 19 at 7pm

Native American Culture with Spirit Wing, Barry Lee and Barbara Christy, Wednesday, February 27 at 6:30 pm.

Neither Wolf Nor Dog. Wed, March 13 at 6:30pm. The film follows a Lakota elder who sucks a white author into a road trip through the Dakotas to open the author's eyes to the elder's experience and perspective on the world.

For more information about the book and the author or to find regional programs, visit oboc.org.
