Restored Vietnam-era Huey to land in Newberry Commons

The Restored Huey helicopter Fly-in and program will be held on Saturday, June 11. The date change is due to rescheduled maintenance by the Liberty War Birds, owners of the Huey. Attendees may visit organizations with related information to share beginning at 1pm as we wait for the helicopter to fly in at 2pm.

Special Thanks to the following organizations for donations to support the Huey Fly-in and Educational Program.

Thank you Readers for a Successful Give Local York Fundraiser

Give Local York was held Friday, May 6 with events at The Blue Sky Tavern. Eighteen staff and volunteers were present to work the library table, correct answers on the bookmark, and give free books. New this year, we made t-shirts for all library and tavern staff to wear. A drawing of Bear with a book and a beverage on the shirt reads "Cheers to a Good Read!"

We achieved our $7,000 goal at 10:25pm and then went over by $334. We had several online matches throughout the 24 hours. Thank you to Doug Ross, our Friends' president, for donating at the right time to get the matches. Also, one of our story time Moms got 1 or 2 matches for us as well.

There will be a stretch fund of added donations since we are part of the York County Community Foundation. I won't have the grand total for a few weeks.

The Blue Sky Tavern is a wonderful partner. We thank Eric Fee and the Blue Sky Tavern staff for helping us reach our goal so we can serve our library visitors better. When you connect readers to resources, the whole community wins.

UPS Store 0829 gave us $808 worth of new books for Grades K-12 from Scholastic from a fundraiser they had called Toys for Tots for Literacy. Money was raised from their customers, and owner Bryan Dobson wanted to keep the donation local. We love our neighbors.

Louann Kauffman (center) and two of her sewing friends, Susan Bowen, and Jane Kelly, created a beautiful Quilt for the library. It is hanging over the public computer area and it is stunning to view when you walk in the library. A very special thank you, Ladies, for this labor of love.
