Navigating the Susquehanna River with Captain Jack Dillman

Monday, Oct. 24
6:30pm

Captain Jack Dillman knows the river like a roadmap. He began paddling a canoe at age 15, and met coal diggers and ferrymen, eventually getting the opportunity to steer the Roaring Bull, one of the Ferry boats at Millersburg. Jack spent the next 20 years in the Navy and then came back to run the ferry. He also trains new captains on The Pride of the Susquehanna that launches at City Island. Join us for this live, in-library program. Please register at yorklibraries.org/events. This Look into History program is a partnership between Red Land Community Library and Northeastern York County History in Preservation group (Neychip).
