What Makes Us Flip...
The Pages of a Book?

Arthur's staff are always handling books, but which ones have stayed in their hands a bit longer this past month? The following book reflections are shared by Kathy and Amber.

Kathy is reading The Nickel Boys by Colson Whitehead. "He was interviewed on 60 Minutes recently and I was intrigued and very impressed by him so I decided to try one of his books. I'm about halfway through and like it a lot. I like his style of writing."

Amber is listening to the audiobook, Grandma Gatewood's Walk: the inspiring story of the woman who saved the Appalachian Trail. "Since the start of the pandemic, I have been drawn to true tales of great survival and perseverance. Emma Rowena Gatewood, known as Grandma Gatewood, was another determined soul in our history who fought against so many odds just to endure."

New Arrivals in April

"A group of young women from Smith College risk their lives in France at the height of World War I in this sweeping novel based on a true story—a skillful blend of Call the Midwife and The Alice Network—from New York Times bestselling author Lauren Willig"
www.laurenwillig.com

"Mortimer's enthusiasm bursts forth on every page, and his storytelling skills make this practical handbook for novice beekeepers a delightful read even for those who can't imagine ever managing a buzzing hive."

-Mark Knoblauch from
Booklist, Volume 117, No. 13
