Meet Local Author Jared Reck on Zoom!

TUESDAY, AUG. 3 • 2-3 PM

Author Jared Reck grew up in Hanover, Pennsylvania, the youngest son of two teachers who taught him to love laughter and to love stories. He attended Clemson University, first for architecture, then fine arts, and finally English. After a short time as a production editor for medical journals, Reck went back for his teaching certification.

Reck currently resides in Hanover, with his wife and two daughters. He teaches 8th grade Language Arts, where he has been reading awesome books and writing alongside his students for more than fifteen years. He is the author of two novels, Donuts and Other Proclamations of Love and A Short History of the Girl Next Door.

ONLINE RSVP REQUIRED, SPACE IS LIMITED FOR THIS EVENT.

A Short History of the Girl Next Door

Seriously, how can you see a person nearly every day of your life and never think a thing of it, then all of a sudden, one day, it's different? You see that goofy grin a thousand times and just laugh. But goofy grin #1,001 nearly stops your heart? A fiercely funny and heart-wrenching novel about love, longing, and what happens when life as you know it changes in an instant.

A powerful novel about first love, the intimacy of childhood friendships, and moving forward from loss, after unexpected tragedy strikes. Reck's novel is sure to provoke reflection about finding meaning amid life's unforeseeable tragedies.

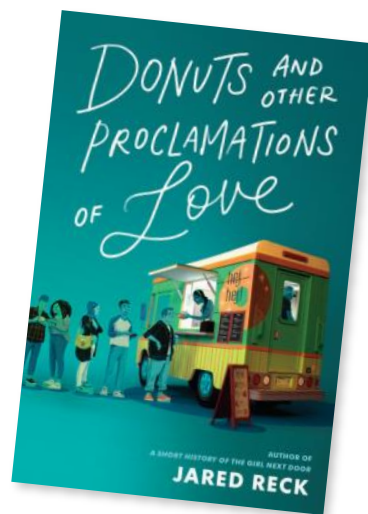

— Publishers Weekly

Donuts and Other Proclamations of Love

The future is anything but certain in this alternately funny and heartbreaking contemporary story about food trucks, festivals, and first loves.

Delightful, with deep, delicious layers and a savory-sweet ending. I gobbled it up.

— Wendelin Van Draanen, award-winning author of Flipped
