Downtown Hanover, PA

From the Director's Desk

Hello Folks,

It's been a few months since you've seen an update from me. There's been so much going on here at the library that we can hardly fit it all into one newsletter!

SummerQuest has officially begun, and it's not too late to sign up. It's not just for kids and teens, either – there are some fabulous summer events planned for adults, too, and some opportunities to win some great prizes for all ages based on your summer reading goals. Ask any of our friendly staff members for more information. And if you're a person who primarily interacts with us online, reading our e-books and downloading our online audiobooks and movies, we're so happy that we're able to connect with you virtually and give you access to the information you need. Consider visiting our physical location sometime: you can peruse some of the amazing book displays we've put together and see how we've rearranged and refreshed some of our physical spaces.

Want to make sure you're staying updated on everything that's happening here at the library? You can always learn the latest about what's going on with us by:

- Signing up for our email newsletter <https://www.yorklibraries.org/newsletters/>
- Checking out our online events calendar, which always has the most up-to-date information for all of our programs and speaker events <https://www.yorklibraries.org/events/>
- Connecting with us on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter
- Reading our blog <https://www.yorklibraries.org/hanover-guthrie/in-the-know/>
- Looking at the information posted in the building — library event flyers are posted in the elevator and there are useful handouts at each of our circulation desks, and there is a community bulletin board and information about local services in our front lobby
- Consider attending any of our monthly governance meetings, which are almost always open to the public – the meeting calendar, meeting agendas, and meeting minutes can be found on the Hanover Borough website <https://www.hanoverboroughpa.gov/calendar.aspx>

Thank you to those who have stepped up and shown your support for us over these past years, whether it be by attending our events, by checking out books, by participating in our fundraisers, or by giving us your feedback at our community sessions. What's on your mind, Hanover? Reach out and let me know.

Best,

Shanna Hollich, Library Director
