FAST FACTS

5 Good Reasons to Take Your Kids to the Library Today

by Christine French Cully, Contributor
 Editor in Chief, Highlights for Children

- Regular library visits inevitably lead to more reading.
 - When you visit the library, you can expose your children to more books and magazines than you can afford to buy.
 - Library time is active, not passive.
 - Your local children's librarian can recommend books that you may not know of or think to suggest, broadening their tastes and expanding their minds and vocabularies.
 - Owning a library card teaches kids responsibility.

According to Purdue University, when children play with building materials, it is a first step toward motivating them toward the sciences.

And....the university's research shows that kids, especially girls, find interest in things that they are confident in doing.

Come in and start building. Pre-schoolers can drop by & play with our building materials at Kreutz Creek Library on the 2nd & 4th Wednesdays of the month from 10:30 am - 12:30 pm.

CAUTION!
CONSTRUCTION ZONE AHEAD.
