2017 Federal Tax Forms Delayed

Due to December's tax legislation and the recent government shutdown, 2017 Federal Tax Forms will not be available until AT LEAST mid-February. Forms may become available online for downloading at the beginning of February. Please note, the IRS is not guaranteeing either availability time frame.

When 2017 forms are available online, we can print them for you for $.25 per page and when we receive the paper forms, we will put them out immediately. Local Tax Forms may also be printed for $.25 a page. State Forms and other tax resources are available at our library now.
