Get Involved at Paul Smith Library

One Book One Community organizers are once again asking readers to vote for next year's One Book, One Community book selection! The public vote initiative is a way to promote community involvement in the selection of the title, rather than handing over a single title each year. This year there are five titles on the ballot. The 2019 OBOC regional campaign represents collaboration between 40 public and academic libraries in Cumberland, Dauphin, Perry and York counties. Vote online at www.OBOB.org now through August 30.

Are you a teen who loves the library? Are you interested in earning service hours? Do you like planning and helping at events? Be a part of the inaugural Teen Advisory Group (TAG) at Paul Smith Library. Email kforster@yorklibraries.org for more information.

INFORMATION LITERACY

What is Information Literacy?

Information Literacy is the ability to use the internet and technological resources to improve the education and skills necessary to succeed in a digital society.

Why does Information Literacy Matter? (statistics taken from www.paforward.org)

- More than 9% of information needed for research papers was sourced from Wikipedia or other wikis.
- The higher the grade point average, the lower the reliance on search engines such as Google or Yahoo for research papers.
- Social networking use among Internet users ages 50 and older nearly doubled between April 2009 and May 2010, making this age group the fastest growing demographic for Facebook and other social media.
- Nearly three-quarters of job seekers now use the Internet to seek employment, in part because this is the only way to apply for many job opportunities.

How does the Library support Information Literacy?

- Monthly Tech Guru
- Webinars for new library software such as Axis 360
- Enhanced POWER Library
- Online user account access

We are so lucky here at Paul Smith Library to have such wonderful volunteers!

It has been a busy summer and we would not succeed without all of our regular volunteers and the great group of Summer Quest volunteers!

Thank you all so much for your help!

The Shrewsbury Area Centennial Lions Club has partnered with Paul Smith Library to collect food for the Southern York County Food Bank.

We greatly appreciate donations of non-perishable items such as cereal, pasta, applesauce, peanut butter, soup, tuna, single serve school lunch fruits, granola bars, fruit bars, pretzel sticks, raisins, hummus and sunflower seeds.

There is a bin in the library vestibule.
