PAUL SMITH LIBRARY HONORS

Honoring Tom & Betty Healy

Thomas and Elizabeth Healy moved to New Freedom from New York in August 1998 after Tom retired from a career as an Environmental Chemist. Soon after arriving, Betty became involved in the community through volunteering at the New Freedom Library. It was not long before she was hired as a staff Library Assistant. When the New Freedom Library and Shrewsbury Public Library merged into the Southern York County Library, Betty continued as a faithful staff member. Upon retiring, she continued to volunteer at the library until her passing in August 2018.

When the two libraries merged, Tom joined the newly formed Friends of the Library. He has served as the Friends President for the past several years. In addition to their volunteer work with the Library, the Healys were active in other volunteer areas as well. They both volunteered at the Lord's Lunch at St. John Lutheran Church for several years. Tom was instrumental in the creation of St. John the Baptist Catholic School. He has volunteered there each week for the past eleven years.

Tom and Betty met in 1963 at choir practice. Tom knew right away that he wanted to get to know Betty better. They were married in 1966 and have three adult children – Anne, Kerry, and John.

The Healys' dedication to literacy and volunteerism has helped to shape southern York County into a community of lifelong learning.
