PAUL SMITH LIBRARY HONORS

Honoring
The Hittie Family

Originally from Somerset County, Jean and late husband, Bob Hittie, moved to New Freedom in 1955. Bob and Jean acquired the local hardware store, evolving into the current Shrewsbury True Value Hardware. Jean worked at the store for more than 40 years; first with Bob, then with her sons, Scott, and Brad after Bob passed away five years ago.

Starting at an early age, the boys worked at the store in their youth and came back to the family business after their college years. Following in Bob's footsteps, the family continues to be both active in and supportive of the community, including the library.

Bob was very active in the family's church and community affairs, especially the library. Bob and Jean often expressed their support for having an expansive library in their town, and made sure new residents knew where the library was located. They gave generously of their time and finances to support community libraries. Jean was an enthusiastic library volunteer.

Scott is married to Sheri-Le with one son, and Brad is married to Bonnie with seven children and eleven grandchildren (and one on the way!).

The Hittie family demonstrate passion for the Southern York County community and dedication to the library. The Hitties have truly made our community a better place to live and learn.
