WINTER READING CHALLENGE

York County Libraries are looking for community members to take the Beanstack Winter Reading Challenge From January 1-31, 2020.

Sponsored by Penguin Random House the challenge encourages community members of all ages to read in support of libraries and schools.

YCL are challenging participants to each read 450 minutes or more to help us reach our local goal of 10,000 minutes. Keeping track is easy on the Beanstack app, which our libraries have used for Youth programs since 2017.

Please join us for this challenge!

KNIT OR CROCHET

Bring your crochet works in progress (WIPS) or any other fiber art and enjoy fine company while you stitch.

Join us, a group of like minded enthusiasts, on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of each month.

Feel free to bring a drink for yourself.

TIME: 10:30 am to 12 noon

Join the 2020 One Book, One Community Campaign by reading Heartland

By Sarah Smarsh

A Memoir of Working Hard and Being Broke in the Richest Country on Earth

This year's OBOC regional campaign represents collaboration between 40 libraries in four counties:

Cumberland, Dauphin, Perry and York and their community partners.

Reading campaign organizers encourage residents to read the book in January in preparation to attend free programs at public libraries that will begin next month.

Participating libraries will stock copies of the book that can be borrowed free of charge beginning this month.

Program schedules for book discussions, author lectures and all activities can be found at www.oboc.org
