LIBRARY UPDATES

Effective February 7th

Masks are required for patrons while in all parts of the library.

We are continuing Limited Browsing.
We have restored computer usage and seating is available.

In House programming will still be suspended.

We hope that these actions will be temporary and that we will increase our hours in the near future.

For updates: open.yorklibraries.org

DEMENTIA SUPPORT GROUP

A support group for caregivers of people with dementia related illness was started in October 2021 which would meet on the first Monday of each month from 11 AM until 1 PM.

We are unable to have programming
within the library at this time.

Interested parties should contact the library for more information.

ANNUAL APPEAL

Meeting our community's needs is our focus. While books remain a vital part of our library, your donation directly supports programming, free WiFi,
computers, staffing, safe spaces,
increased hours and more.

With a gift to the library our community is strengthened. So please think of us when you receive our letter because your gift changes lives!
