RICH REWARDS THE SECRETS TO BECOMING "WEALTHY"

Successful long-term investing has little to do with intellect, but everything to do with behavior and developing sound financial habits. Regardless of occupation or earnings level, becoming wealthy is an achievable goal.

Join us as local native and nationally recognized Financial Advisor, Kevin J. Smith discusses the tools, habits and behaviors routinely employed by those who have achieved financial success. Yet being "wealthy" is more than becoming rich. It entails richness in life, finding meaning and purpose, pursuing passions and dreams, and appreciating all the things that money cannot buy.

This program is part of the library's Third Wednesday series and will be held September 20th at 7PM.
