GRATEFUL BREAD DAY!

Monday, November 20, 2023
12PM-6PM

Get ready for the Thanksgiving holiday by visiting the library's Grateful Bread Day! Special bread items for sale include yeast breads and rolls, bagels, muffins, coffeecakes and pastries, quick breads, homemade granola and more! Quarts of homemade soup and a variety of dessert items will also be available for purchase.

If you are a baker and would like to contribute to this fundraising effort, please contact Sandi Walsh at 410-456-9499 or sandiwalsh1949@gmail.com

COMING IN NOVEMBER KINDNESS!

The Third Wednesday Series will present a movie with a message about kindness on Wednesday, November 15 at 6:00 pm

in the library's Community Room in celebration of
Kindness Week November 11-18.

Kindness Week aims to encourage good deeds in our community.

Through acts of kindness, we strive to improve our community and spread joy to all.

Put the 8 characteristics of Kindness into Action!

Gratitude, Generosity, Empathy, Joy, Forgiveness, Patience, Respect and Service.

HOLIDAY HOME TOUR

The Mason-Dixon Public Library and the Stewartstown Historical Society will host their Holiday Home Tour on Saturday, December 2, 2023
from 11am-4pm

Tour visitors this year will be welcomed into four private residences plus H.O.P.E. Haven and Community of Christ Church where a special lunch will be available for purchase. Each tour site is unique with interesting history, architecture, special collections, or inspiring decorations for the Holidays. Several additional points of interest will be included on the tour route.

Passes when available, will be $20 per adult in advance at the library or $25 day of tour.

On December 2nd participants will pick up their tour passes and directions at Either the library or at the church. Participants may proceed to tour in the order they desire.

Please join us in making our 2023 Holiday Tour a success!
All proceeds benefit the Library and the Stewartstown Historical Society.
