

Books and Beyond: Connections for Your Child

A free conference for educators & parents

Thursday, Aug 1, 2019
8:30am—3:30pm

Meet our presenters

Keynote speaker Sara Bradley, Learning Policy Director of PA Partnerships for Children, will share the importance of early education

Kelly Starling Lyons, children's author, will explore the multicultural landscape of children's books past & present

Ana Iosub Orr & Holly Lehmann, York City School District Behavior Specialists & Martin Library employees, will share how to help children who have survived trauma.

Paula Gilbert & Lisa Schmittle, Librarian and Reading Specialist, will show new books published in the last year to share with children.

York Area Regional Charter
School (upper school)
2 Hamilton Avenue
York, PA 17401

Free parking available on street & across Hamilton Ave in YARCS parking lot

Parents and educators know they are preparing children for school, which is a huge responsibility.

At the Books and Beyond conference, you'll hear from experts who will speak on a variety of topics including trends in early education; diversity, equity and inclusion; helping child victims of trauma; and a look at new and diverse children's literature.

RSVP to save your seat today!

Educators: 5 hours of Act 48
credit is available!

Conference Day Schedule:

8:30 am	Registration/Breakfast
9:00 am	Keynote Speaker
9:45 am	Break
10:00 am	Workshop 1
11:30 am	Lunch (on own)
12:30 pm	Workshop 2
2:00 pm	Break
2:15 pm	Workshop 3
3:15 pm	Close/Evaluation

Childcare is not available

RSVP by July 30 at www.yorklibraries.org/yclconference-rsvp/