Celebrate Native American Heritage Month!

ADULT NONFICTION

CODE TALKER

This book is nonfiction and tells the story of the Code Talkers, who used their language skills to ensure secure communication for the US military during World War II.

INDIAN SCHOOL

This book focuses on the experience of Native American children who were forced to attend boarding schools where they were stripped of their cultural traditions.

THE HEARTBEAT OF WOUNDED KNEE

This book explores the historical context and significance of the Wounded Knee Massacre, a tragic event in American history.

TEEN FICTION

IF I EVER GET OUT OF HERE

This novel by Eric Gansworth tells the story of a young man growing up on a reservation and dealing with the challenges of adolescence.

WOLF MAR

This book is a young adult fiction novel that explores the life of a young boy named Wolf Mar, set against the backdrop of the Blackfoot tribe.

TEEN NONFICTION

#NOTYOURPRINCESS

This book is a collection of essays written by Native American women, offering perspectives on issues such as identity, cultural appropriation, and empowerment.

DREAMING IN INDIAN

This work is a memoir by Richard River, who shares his journey from reservation life to mainstream society, addressing themes of identity, resilience, and cultural preservation.

#IFIGOMISSING

This book tells the story of a young woman who goes missing, and the impact this has on her family and community, addressing issues of native violence and justice.

background map courtesy of native-lands.ca