MARTIN LIBRARY HONORS

Honoring Thomas and Cynthia Donley

Tom and Cindy are valued members of the York County community, dedicated to literacy and learning. Tom is an attorney who worked as a certified chamber of commerce executive for 31 years, 24 of which he served as CEO of the York County Chamber. Tom also attained a professional services marketing certification as Director of Business Development for the Butz Family of Companies, construction managers. Cindy is a special education teacher and well-respected children's author, dedicated to reading and education as fundamental to one's development as a citizen and effective leader. Tom and Cindy have both utilized their time and talents in support of the library and other educational organizations throughout York County.

Tom and Cindy grew up in Allentown, Pennsylvania, where they were Junior High and William Allen High School classmates. They take great pride in and are devoted to their family, especially their three children, and five grandchildren.
