

Your Support Ensures
the Future of the Library

Over a hundred years ago, Mr. and Mrs. H.E. Young donated the land and the building we today call the Guthrie Memorial Library - Hanover's Public Library.

Over the decades, many others have followed the Young's example, ensuring that the Library remains a valuable resource for the greater Hanover community.

Your generosity can make a difference in the future of our library, be it through a bequest in your will or other planned gift.

Leave a Legacy

Help ensure the Library will remain a valuable resource for the greater Hanover community for many generations to come. Become a member of our Aristotle Society today.
