Summer Lawn Concert Series Finale: Stone House Breakdown. Join us Saturday, September 13 from 6-8 PM for the final concert of our 5th annual series! Stone House Breakdown performs a blend of original and traditional Appalachian and bluegrass music. Their distinctive sound will remind you of classic bluegrass greats like The Stanley Brothers. Food trucks will be on-site with food available for purchase.

Take And Make Bookmarks. Help us keep the tradition of beautiful, handmade bookmarks alive! We have "Take & Make" bags filled with supplies available for you to create your own. While scissors and glue are not included, everything else you need is inside. We would appreciate it if you could donate many of your creations back to the library for other patrons to enjoy.

Fall Used Book Sale. Mark your calendars for the Friends of the Library Fall Used Book Sale! We are collecting donations of gently used books, DVDs, audiobooks, and puzzles until September 13. The sale runs from September 20-27 during library hours, and we're excited to announce we'll also have gently used board games this year! Don't miss our final day on September 27, which is our popular Fill a Bag for $5 day. We hope to see you all there!

Dillsburg Library Book Discussion Group. Join the Dillsburg Library Book Discussion Group for their next two meet-ups! On September 4th, it's a B.Y.O.B. (Bring Your Own Book) casual discussion, so bring a book you've been loving and share it with the group. Then, on October 16th, they will discuss the powerful novel, All We Ever Wanted by Emily Giffin. Reserve your copy today at <https://bit.ly/allweeverwantedemilygiffin> and get ready for a great conversation.

Guests Visits to the Northern York Elementary Schools. This month, Northern school district elementary students will be getting a special visit! Miss Sue and Clifford will be coming to the Northern York elementary schools to tell them all about GOAL and how they can get their very own library card.

Piano Art Project. Have you seen the decorated piano outside of the library? It was acquired, painted, and installed by Christopher Rizzo and Alyssa Zahurak, rising seniors at Northern, as a public art project. It is planned to remain in place until Farmers Fair. Thank you to Chris and Alyssa for this lovely addition, to the Kocon Family for the donation of the piano, and to all others who helped make this a reality.

Volunteers Needed. The Library has an immediate need for volunteers to assist at the circulation desk, especially on evenings and Saturdays. Clearances required and training provided. Contact the library for details.

Featured Artist: Jan Rushing

Jan Rushing is a resident of Dillsburg by way of North Carolina. A registered nurse by profession, an artist by happenstance. Impressionistic and contemporary in nature, her paintings represent vivid colors and strokes at the cellular level.

Jan currently resides in a big stone ranch house with her wife, Donna and her 2 black labs, Arctic and Santi. She can be found walking the property petting the horses that live behind her house, floating in the pool with her crazy pups and working from her office on any given day.
