MYTHS AND LEGENDS OF ESTATE PLANNING

"In this world, nothing is certain except death and taxes" so said Benjamin Franklin, and no one would argue this truth to this day.

Jody Leighty is an experienced attorney in estate planning and has offered to share her knowledge at the September "Third Wednesday"

Community program at the library.
She calls her program "The Myths and Legends of Estate Planning," because most of it is debunking the myths, legends, and misinformation around this topic. She says, "there is so much misinformation out there, some folks get taken advantage of, or do not plan at all because of being misinformed."

Mrs. Leighty was raised in southern York County, received a B.A. from Clemson University, and then went on to earn her Juris Doctorate from the College of William and Mary. Upon graduation, she started practicing law alongside her father, D. Reed Anderson at Stock and Leader.

In her day-to-day work, Jody focuses on guiding individuals and families through the process of buying, selling, refinancing, and leasing property. In addition, she works with clients to develop essential estate planning documents such as wills, trusts, and power of attorney.

Mrs. Leighty will present her program on

September 17th at 6:30 PM

This program will be held in the library's Community Room.
For additional information please call the library at 717-993-2404 where you can track our bovine friend!

ART EXHIBITION

In late October or early November we will be hosting our last art opening and exhibition of 2025 with the work of local artist, Dave DeRan.

Dave is one of the library's favorite artists and hasn't shown his work here since the year 2009. We are excited for his return.
