New Fall Programming Coming Soon

Libraries are more than just books! They are centers of cultural, social, and civic connection in our community. Mark your calendars with some of our new and returning programs that are FREE to attend this fall:

Book Clubs at the Library

Are you looking for your next thrilling murder mystery? Our Mystery Book Club will keep you on the edge of your seat.

Looking to spice up your reading list? Try our new Romance Book Club! Are you curious about controversial titles or find yourself drawn to "dangerous" books? The Banned Book Club is the place to discuss these stories and the issue of censorship.

Make New Connections in the Community

The library is no longer a stuffy, quiet place. It is a vibrant community center where you can meet new people and make connections over shared interests and experiences! Families can connect during our weekly Story Times. Seniors can socialize during our Senior Health and Wellness Workshops. Adults with special needs and their companions can meet new friends or connect with familiar faces at our Good Times Social Club. Teens can bond over their love of Pokémon, Dungeons and Dragons, Magic the Gathering, or writing at weekly or monthly club meetings.

Become a Life-Long Learner

Everyone is capable of learning new things and bettering themselves in order to live their best life—and that's built into our mission here at the library. Classes and lectures happen every month at the library. This fall, Guthrie Memorial Library will offer programs or classes on cooking, nuclear energy, investing, sewing, & more!

The reviews are in!

James T. on Google Reviews says:

Staff is great and very helpful. Library looks great after repairs from flooding. Worth checking out your local library! Never know what kind of good stuff you might find to do there ;)
