Are You Willing to Bake Some Bread?

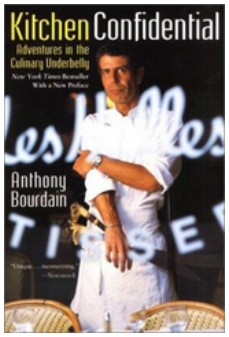

The Mason-Dixon's Grateful Bread fundrasier returns for the 4th year.

Community members are invited to support the library by donating baked goods, or by purchasing these delicious breads, pies, soups, and more, available just in time for Thanksgiving.

Mark your calendar for Monday November 23, from 12-6pm. Plan to arrive early. This event frequently sells out in the first two hours!

Sign up sheet and more information are available at the library circulation desk or by calling 717-993-2404.

Interested in playing Mahjong? The library is looking to start a Mahjong program in our Community Room. Please contact Carol at cstampler@yorklibraries.org or call the library at 717-993-2404 during regular operating hours. Let's do it!

Third Wednesday Series
Wallace Cross Mill Celebrates 200 Years!

Wednesday, November 16, 6:30pm

Celebrate the historic Felton mill's 200th year with a special presentation by mill docents Judy Grove and Cindy Pizziketti.

Judy will highight the historical significance and operations of the mill as it celebrates its bicentennial anniversary. Cindy will share the story of the two Wallace sisters who ran the mill for 30 years following the Civil War.

You can always come to the library and check out the detailed model of the Wallace Cross Mill which resides in our Quiet Reading Room.
