THE JODY KELLER HONORS EVENT

Whether on a boat or on the beach, Jody Keller found the best way to escape from the hectic pace of her career was to relax with a few good historical novels. Reading has always been the best tonic for getting away in place.

In 2013, after 14 years with ParenteBeard LCC, Jody retired from her position as a Partner and Chief Administrative Officer and continued her consulting practice by establishing Jody Keller LLC, a human resources management consulting firm. Concurrently, she is the Executive in Residence at The Graham Center for Entrepreneurial Leadership Studies at Penn State York. Jody also serves as a Director of the York Water Company, Empire Group, Minnich's Pharmacy, and Wagman, Inc.

Previous experience includes Interim Executive Director of York area not-for-profit organizations, Steam Into History and the Strand Capitol Performing Arts Center in York, PA from 2014 – 2016. Prior to her time at ParenteBeard, Jody and her husband, Jake, were the owners of Keller Resources, Inc. Additionally, Jody served as an instructor of human resources management, employment law, and training and development courses from 1992 to 2011 at Villanova University and York College.

Ms. Keller holds a BS degree from Penn State University and a MS degree from St. Francis University. She has developed expertise in human resources, organizational development and design, compensation strategy, and leadership development as well as intimate knowledge of the York County community.

Jody has also held numerous Chairman, President, board member and various committee positions with community and non-profit organizations. As an active volunteer, she has served as the President of the Rotary Club of York, York Area Chamber of Commerce, Chairman of the York YMCA, and the Penn State York Advisory Board. She is currently a member of the York County Libraries Board, Board President of Pappus House, and Chairman of the Turning Point Women's Counseling and Advocacy Center Board. She has also served on the Boards of the Strand Capitol Performing Arts Center, Byrnes Health Education Center, Shadowfax Corporation, and co-chaired the Allocations Division of the United Way of York.

Jody resides in York with her husband, Jake, and has 2 grown children, Matt and Sadie, who enjoyed being read books about the Smurfs, Little Brown Bear and the Who. Her grandsons, Wes and Andrew, are avid readers who tackled the Harry Potter series beginning at age 7.
