Biography

Michael E. Kochenour, Founder and Chairman of the Board of York Traditions Bank, has 45 years of banking experience. Previously, he also served as the Bank's President and CEO. Prior to founding York Traditions Bank in 2002, he was EVP, Head of Investment Services and Trust, for Drovers Bank. With National Central Bank and its successors—Hamilton, CoreStates, and First Union (now Wells Fargo)—his Senior Management roles encompassed retail, corporate, and small business banking, as well as merger integration and human resources, and spanned across multiple states. Mike is Immediate Past Chair of the PA Bankers Association Group 5 Executive Committee and chairs the Nominating Committee. A York native, his community involvement includes the Advisory Board and Past Board Chair of the American Red Cross-York/Adams Chapter; Advisory Board and Past Board Chair of the Byrnes Health Education Center; Board member, Executive Committee, and Chair of the Governance Committee of the Appell Center for the Performing Arts; Board member and Treasurer of the York County Bar Association Foundation; Vice Chair for the York Health Foundation Board; Chair of the Leadership Cabinet for the York College Community Opportunity Scholarship Program; Past Chair of the Heart & Stroke Ball for the American Heart and American Stroke Association; and Past Board Chair of the United Way of York County. He is an active Rotarian and serves as a mentor for Leadership York.
